WALT DISNEY CONCERT HALL PROJECT CONSTRUCTION PROGRESS

Following is the current project status (see attached photos):

- Installation of the exterior metal panel enclosure system continues and it is still scheduled to be completed this December.
- Installation of vertical glazing is in progress including the north window inside the Hall.
- Installation of the escalators in the lobby are in progress and work on the elevators continues.
- Fabrication of the organ continues.
- Mechanical duct work continues.
- Stone paving of the main entrance to the Hall on the corner of Grand Avenue and 1st Street is scheduled to commence late this December.
- Installation of stone cladding on the Philharmonic Center and around the site is continuing and is scheduled to be completed by this October.
- Installation of the Hall's wooden ceiling panels continues and it appears this work will now be completed by this July. The temporary floor to complete this work is scheduled to come down in August. All millwork in the Hall including the walls is expected to be completed by this November.
